

As a former prosecutor, public safety is a core issue for Governor Whitmer. She works closely with law enforcement officers and community organizations to bring down crime and ensure people feel safe in their neighborhoods.

Made investments to keep communities safe

- Invested over $1 billion into public safety programs across 4 bipartisan budgets.
- Delivered $155 million to communities to help them hire more first responders, building on the $1.4 billion local governments have received since she took office.
- Secured millions to increase patrols on secondary roads and in high-crime areas, increased mental health resources for public safety professionals, and to train and hire hundreds of state police troopers and fund a new trooper recruit school.
- Delivered $60 million in scholarships for EMS providers and police recruits for training.
- Signed a bill to increase road patrol funding by 50%, putting more officers on the road.
- Funded gun violence prevention research and signed an executive directive to more effectively use federal and state resources to reduce crime and gun violence.
- Signed commonsense gun violence prevention legislation establishing universal background checks and safe storage requirements, and extreme risk protection orders.
- Secured $10.8 million to fund community violence intervention programs, using evidence-based solutions to tackle the root causes of community violence.
- Launched Operation Safe Neighborhoods to reduce gun violence by getting hundreds of illegal guns off the street before they could be used in the commission of a crime.
- Established Jobs Court, a court diversion program to put hundreds of Michiganders accused of low-level, nonviolent offenses in good-paying jobs.
- Proposed budget with dedicated resources to hire, train, retain, and expand mental health supports for first responders-and graduate more state troopers.

Improved relationships between the public and law enforcement

- Signed an FY 2023 budget with funding to connect law enforcement to the communities they serve and ensure individuals with mental illness receive appropriate treatment.
- Developed a plan to strengthen police-community relations and the Bridges to BLUE Build Listen Unite Engage to provide the department with an outside perspective.
- Directed the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards to provide guidance to law enforcement agencies on new laws and issues facing the communities they protect. Proposed$18.2 million to support in service training for over 18,300 officers.
- Announced new protocols so EMS responders can carry emergency contraception and are prepared to work with sexual assault survivors.
- Established community service trooper positions across the state, and secured funding for community policing, violence intervention programs, and de-escalation training.
- Signed a package of bills to provide behavioral health crisis grants to local governments and expand community-based mobile crisis intervention services.
- Signed bills increasing compensation and mental health resources for victims.
- Signed a bill guaranteeing access to college tuition grants for the children of police and firefighters who lost their lives on the line of duty in Michigan.
- Proposed a permanent a victim support program, more funding for OK2SAY, and evidence-based community violence intervention services.
